As chair of the SW dept. I approve adding Human Trafficking to the Gender Studies minor. In fact, I'm delighted!

Dear Dr. Hart,

I am currently working on updating the curriculum for the Gender Studies minor to bring it up to date and ensure that the catalog curriculum properly matches the gender studies courses currently being offered in the different departments. This has entailed deleting courses that are no longer offered, as well as adding new courses that are already part of other majors and have clear relevance to the gender studies degree program. The marked and unmarked copies of the curriculum revision proposal are attached to this email.
One of the courses being added is SOW 4274 International Social Work – Human Trafficking taught by Dr. Nairruti Jani.

Please could you confirm via email that as Chair of the Department of Social Work you are comfortable with this addition.

Let me know if you have any questions or would like to see any additional documents.

Best wishes,

Nicola
