

GPA Calculations

- Next to the “Worksheets” tab in your degree audit there is a “GPA Calc” tab.

The screenshot shows the Degree Works interface with the GPA Calc tab selected. A red arrow points to the 'GPA Calc' tab. Below the student information, there are tabs for 'Worksheets' and 'GPA Calc'. The 'GPA Calc' tab is active, showing a 'Format' dropdown set to 'Student View' and buttons for 'View' and 'Save as PDF'. A 'Disclaimer' section is visible at the bottom, stating that the degree audit is not an official document.

- Degree Works has three different GPA Calculation scenarios; “Graduation Calculator”, “Term Calculator”, and “Advice Calculator”.
- The “Graduation Calculator” is the default calculator and will determine if a desired graduation GPA is possible and how to achieve it.
 - Your current FGCU GPA will display, enter the three remaining fields.
 - Click “Calculate”.

The screenshot shows the Degree Works interface with the Graduation Calculator selected. A red arrow points to the 'Graduation Calculator' tab. The calculator displays the following information:

Current GPA	3.36
Credits Remaining	60
Credits Required	120
Desired GPA	3.50

A green callout box explains: "Azul's current GPA is 3.36. He would like to graduate with cum laude honors, so his desired GPA is 3.50. Azul's degree requires 120 credits and he has completed 60 leaving 60 credits remaining." Red arrows point from the callout to the values in the table. A 'Calculate' button is located below the table.

- Azul would need to average a 3.64 in his remaining courses to obtain a 3.50 GPA.

The screenshot shows the Degree Works interface with the Graduation Calculator selected. The calculator displays the following information:

Current GPA	3.36
Credits Remaining	60
Credits Required	120
Desired GPA	3.50

A red arrow points to the text: "You need to average a 3.64 over your final 60 Credits to graduate with your desired GPA." A 'Recalculate' button is located below the table.

GPA Calculations cont.

- The “Term Calculator” will display your current FGCU GPA, completed credits and courses you are currently enrolled in. By selecting the expected grade from the drop down boxes for each course and clicking “Calculate” a new projected FGCU GPA will display.
