501. LARGE RARE BOTTLE OF WINE  Priceless
This rare three-litre bottle was originally auctioned at Europe's most famous charity auction event: 133rd annual Hospices de Beaune weekend auction. The Hospice began in 1452, 50 years before Columbus landed in America. Louis Jadot is one of France's most respected winemakers and negociants. Robert Parker, the dean of wine pundits, has rated Louis Jadot wines overall as "excellent" among France burgundyies. As is tradition for this event, this Louis Jadot bottle is filled with wine from the vineyards of the Hospice. There are hardly any of these three-liter bottles on the west side of the Pond. This is great conversation piece for a serious collector or for a large dinner party. Buyer's choice!
