Introduction

Welcome to Florida Gulf Coast University. Veterans’ Educational Benefits are designed to provide eligible individuals with opportunities for opportunity and career growth. These Educational Benefits are some of the most valuable benefits afforded to veterans and qualifying dependents and should be used wisely. Veterans have earned the right to use their educational benefits and we at FGCU are both pleased and honored to assist you in utilizing them to your best advantage. We welcome you to our campus and wish you every success in your educational endeavor.

The purpose of this handbook is to assist you in using your VA Educational Benefits at Florida Gulf Coast University in your understanding and utilization of school and VA policy and procedure. You are encouraged to read and refer to this booklet often. Doing so will help you to minimize misunderstanding the school and VA policy and procedures.

The FGCU VA Certifying Official and other staff who may assist you are not employed by the Department of Veterans’ Affairs (DVA). Our responsibility is to interpret, explain, and administer VA regulations surrounding the various VA Educational Benefits Programs as they apply to you while pursuing your degree at Florida Gulf Coast University.

Points to Remember

The veteran’s responsibility is to use the university as an information resource. The University Catalog, your advisor, Veteran Handbook, etc. are all available to assist you. These resources will give you enough information to help you select your major and enroll in the appropriate classes to earn the desired degree and at the same time maintain VA benefits. This handbook is a guide for you to maintain these educational benefits. Please use the Veterans’ Affairs website as a valuable and convenient information resource: www.gibill.va.gov/education

Additional points to remember:
- You, as a student, are under obligation to both DVA and FGCU regulations, policies, and procedures.
- Due to regulations imposed by the US Congress on the Department of Veterans’ Affairs and State Approving Authority, those who use VA Educational Benefits do not always have the same level of freedom afforded to non-benefit students in working through their educational programs.
- By law, no certification will be sent to the VA Regional Office for any course until all of FGCU’s admissions requirements have been met. Please make sure to contact FGCU’s Office of Undergraduate Admissions or Graduate Admissions for further assistance and information on the requirements needed to be met.
- Non-degree seeking students are not eligible for VA Educational Benefits unless they are pursuing a Teacher’s Certification.
- Under no circumstances will the DVA pay for a course taken on an audit basis.
Principles of Excellence Law

The Principles should ensure that these educational institutions provide meaningful information to service members, veterans, spouses, and other family members about the financial cost and quality of educational institutions to assist those prospective students in making choices about how to use their federal educational benefits; prevent abusive and deceptive recruiting practices that target the recipients of federal military and veterans educational benefits; and ensure that educational institutions provide high-quality academic and student support services to active-duty service members, reservists, members of the National Guard, veterans, and military families.

Principles of Excellence Executive Order:

ACE Accreditation

ACE provides quality assurance and policy guidance to the Army, Navy, and Marine Corps for military transcripts. More than 2,300 colleges and universities recognize these transcripts as official documentation of military training and experiences and applicable ACE credit recommendations.

Statute 1004.96: College Credit for Military Training and Educational Courses
The Board of Governors shall adopt regulations and the State Board of Education shall adopt rules that enable eligible members of the United States Armed Forces to earn academic college credit at public postsecondary educational institutions for college-level training and education acquired in the military. The regulations and rules shall include procedures for credential evaluation and the award of academic college credit, including, but not limited to, equivalency and alignment of military coursework with appropriate college courses, course descriptions, type, and amount of college credit that may be awarded, and transfer of credit.

Chapter 30 – Montgomery GI Bill Active Duty (MGIB-AD)

The MGIB program provides up to 36 months of education benefits. This benefit may be used for degree and certificate programs, flight training, apprenticeship/on-the-job training and correspondence courses. Remedial, deficiency, and refresher courses may be approved under certain circumstances. Generally, benefits are payable for 10 years following your release from active duty. This program is also commonly known as Chapter 30. You may be an eligible veteran if you have an Honorable Discharge, AND you have a High School Diploma or GED or, in some cases, 12 hours of college credit, AND you meet the requirements of one of the categories below:

This benefit is for those veterans who served on active duty after June 30, 1985 (Category I), those who had remaining entitlement under the Vietnam Era GI Bill (Category II), and those who switched from VEAP before being involuntarily separated after February 2, 1991 (Category III).

For Category I:

- Had military pay reduced by $100 a month for first 12 months
- Continuously served for 3 years, or 2 years if that was what you first enlisted for, or 2 years if you entered the Selected Reserve within a year of leaving active duty and served 4 years (‘2 by 4’ Program)

Your application package should include the following:
- Form 22-1990 Application for Educational Benefits

Your application package should include the following:
- Form 22-1990 Application for Educational Benefits

- Before separation, you had military pay reduced by $1200

  - Or involuntarily separated on or after 11/30/93
Your application package should include the following:
- Form 22-1990 Application for Educational Benefits

- FGCU Request for Veteran Benefits (each semester) – an FGCU form requesting certification of enrollment

You should be aware that the following pitfalls could cause you to lose all MGIB benefits:

Honorable Discharge – You must have an honorable discharge. A “general” or “under honorable condition” is not qualifying.

Early Discharge – To be eligible with an early discharge, your separation reason must meet certain requirements. Call 1-888-442-4551 for more information.

Qualifying Separation Reasons for the MGIB Benefits of Less than 36 Months:
- Medical condition preexisting service
- Reduction in Force
- Hardship
- Physical or mental condition that interfered with duty that was not due to willful misconduct
- Service-connected disability

How much does VA pay?

The monthly benefit paid to you is based on the type of training you take, length of your service, your category, and if DOD put extra money in your MGIB Fund (called “kickers”). You usually have 10 years to use your MGIB benefits, but the time limit can be less, in some cases, and longer under certain circumstances.

Beginning August 1, 2011, break (or interval pay) will no longer be payable under Post-9/11 GI Bill except during periods your school is closed as a result of an executive order of the President or an emergency (such as a natural disaster or strike). For example, if your fall term ends on December 15th and your spring term begins January 10th, your January housing allowance will cover 15 days in December and your February housing allowance will cover 21 days in January.

In certain circumstances, remedial, deficiency, and refresher training may also be available.

Benefit entitlement is 1 to 36 months depending on the number of monthly contributions. You have 10 years from your release from active duty to use VEAP benefits. If there is entitlement not used after the 10-year period, your portion remaining in the fund will be automatically refunded.
How much does VA pay?

The total dollar amount of your benefits is the sum of:
- Your total contributions not exceeding $2,700
- Matching funds from the VA equal to 2 times your contributions (Government Contributions)
- Any additional DoD contributions or “kickers”

The monthly amount you’ll receive is based on the total (above), the number of months you contributed, the type of training you are pursuing, and your training time.

See VEAP pamphlet for further information.

Transfer of Post 9/11 GI Bill Benefits to Dependents (TEB):

The transferability option under the Post 9/11 GI Bill allows service members to transfer unused benefits to transfer unused benefits to their spouses or dependent children. The Department of Defense determines whether or not you can transfer benefits to your family members. To apply to transfer your benefits, please submit a Transfer Education Benefit (TEB) request for your Service Component Approval. Upon approval, family members may apply to use transferred benefits with VA by completing VA Form 22-1990e after DoD has approved the request for TEB.

TEB Eligibility:
Any member of the Armed Forces (active duty or Selected Reserve, officer or enlisted) on or after August 1, 2009, who is eligible for the Post-9/11 GI Bill, and:

- Has at least six years of service in the Armed Forces (active duty and/or Selected Reserve) on the date of approval and agrees to serve four additional years in the Armed Forces from the date of election.
- Has at least ten years of service in the Armed Forces (active duty and/or Selected Reserve) on the date of approval, is precluded by either standard policy (Service or DoD) or statute from committing to four additional years, and agrees to serve for the maximum amount of time allowed by such policy or statute.
- Is or becomes retirement eligible during the period from August 1, 2009, through July 31, 2012, and agrees to serve an additional period of service in subparagraphs (a) through (d). A service member is considered to be retirement eligible if he or she has completed twenty years of active federal service or twenty qualifying years as computed pursuant to section 12732 of title 10 U.S.C. This will no longer be in effect on August 1, 2013, and on or after that date all members must comply with the above eligibility requirements.
  a) For individuals eligible for retirement on August 1, 2009, no additional service is required.
  b) For individuals eligible for retirement after August 1, 2009, and before August 1, 2010, one year of additional service is required.
  c) For individuals eligible for retirement on or after August 1, 2010, and before August 1, 2011, two years of additional service is required.
  d) For individuals eligible for retirement on or after August 1, 2011, and before August 1, 2012, three years of additional service is required.
- Such transfer must be requested and approved while the member is in the Armed Forces.
Eligible Dependents

- The individual’s spouse
- One or more of the individual’s children
- Any combination of spouse and child
- A family member must be enrolled in the Defense Eligibility Enrollment Reporting System (DEERS) and be eligible for benefits, at the time of transfer to receive transferred education benefits.

A child’s subsequent marriage will not affect his or her eligibility to receive the educational benefit; however, after an individual has designated a child as a transferee under this section, the individual retains the right to revoke or modify the transfer at any time.

A subsequent divorce will not affect the transferee’s eligibility to receive educational benefits; however, after an individual has designated a spouse as a transferee under this section, the eligible individual retains the right to revoke or modify the transfer at any time.

Nature of Transfer

An eligible Service member may transfer up to the total months of unused Post-9/11 GI Bill benefits, or the entire 36 months if the member has used none (unless DoD/DHS limits the number of months an individual may transfer).

Family member use of transferred educational benefits is subject to the following:

Spouse:

- May start to use the benefit immediately.
- May use the benefit while the member remains in the Armed Forces or after separation from active duty.
- Is not eligible for the monthly housing allowance while the member is serving on active duty.
- Can use the benefit for up to 15 years after the service member’s last separation from active duty.

Child:

- May start to use the benefit only after the individual making the transfer has completed at least 10 years of service in the Armed Forces.
- May use the benefit while the eligible individual remains in the Armed Forces or after separation from active duty.
- May not use the benefit until he/she has attained a secondary school diploma (or equivalency certificate), or reached 18 years of age.
- Is entitled to the monthly housing allowance stipend even though the eligible individual is on active duty.
- Is not subject to the 15-year delimiting date, but may not use the benefit after reaching 26 years of age.

Beginning August 1, 2011, break (or interval pay) will no longer be payable under Post-9/11 GI Bill except during periods your school is closed as a result of an executive order of the President or an emergency (such as a natural disaster or strike). For example, if your fall term ends on December 15th and your spring term begins January 10th, your January housing allowance will cover 15 days in December and your February housing allowance will cover 21 days in January.

Chapter 35 – Survivors’ and Dependents’ Educational Assistance

This benefit is for surviving spouses and children of veterans who died in the line of duty while a service member, surviving spouses and children of veterans who died while totally and permanently service-connected disabled, or for surviving spouses and children of a veteran permanently and totally service-connected disabled. The spouse and children of POW's and MIA's may also be eligible.

Eligibility:
You must be the son, daughter, or spouse of:
- A veteran who died or is permanently and totally disabled as the result of a service-connected disability. The disability must arise out of active service in the Armed Forces.
- A veteran who died from any cause while such permanent and total service-connected disability was in existence.
- A service member missing in action or captured in line of duty by a hostile force.
- A service member forcibly detained or interned in line of duty by a foreign government or power.
- A service member who is hospitalized or receiving outpatient treatment for a service-connected permanent and total disability and is likely to be discharged for that disability. This change is effective December 23, 2006.

Period of Eligibility:
If you are a son or daughter and wish to receive benefits for attending school or job training, you must be between the ages of 18 and 26. In certain instances, it is possible to begin before age 18 or after age 26. Marriage is not a bar to this benefit. If you are in the Armed Forces, you may not receive this benefit while on active duty. To pursue training after military service, your discharge must not be under dishonorable conditions. VA can extend your period of eligibility by the number of months and days equal to the time spent on active duty. This extension cannot generally go beyond your 31st birthday.
If you are a spouse, benefits end 10 years from the date VA finds you eligible or from the date of death of the veteran. If the VA rated the veteran permanently and totally disabled with an effective date of 3 years from discharge, a spouse will remain eligible for 20 years from the effective date of the rating. This change is effective October 10, 2008 and no benefits may be paid for any training taken prior to that date. If you are a surviving spouse, benefits end 20 years from the date of death.

Your application package should include the following:

- Form 22-5490 Application for Survivors’ and Dependents’ Educational Assistance
- Copy of 100% service connected disabled veteran’s rating
- Dependent birth certificate
- Copy of marriage license of veteran parent if dependent is a step child
- FGCU Request for Veteran Benefits (each semester) - an FGCU form requesting certification of enrollment

How much does VA pay?

The amount VA pays is based on the type of training program, and training time. Benefits are paid in arrears and monthly. If attendance is less than a month or less than full-time, payments are reduced proportionally.

Direct deposit of education benefits is now available for Chapter 35 recipients. Sign up for direct deposit by using VA Form 24-0296, or by calling 1-888-GI-Bill-1 (1-888-442-4551).

Beginning August 1, 2011, break (or interval pay) will no longer be payable under Post-9/11 GI Bill except during periods your school is closed as a result of an executive order of the President or an emergency (such as a natural disaster or strike). For example, if your fall term ends on December 15th and your spring term begins January 10th, your January housing allowance will cover 15 days in December and your February housing allowance will cover 21 days in January.

Chapter 1606 – Reservist/Guard Benefit

This benefit is for those currently serving in the Selected Reserves.

Eligibility:

- Have a six-year obligation to serve in the Selected Reserve signed after June 30, 1985. If you are an officer, you must have agreed to serve six years in addition to your original obligation. For some types of training, it is necessary to have a six-year commitment that begins after September 30, 1990.
- Complete your initial active duty for training (IADT)
- Meet the requirement to receive a high school diploma or equivalency certificate before completing IADT. You may not use 12 hours toward a college degree to meet this requirement.
- Remain in good standing while serving in an active Selected Reserve unit. You will also retain MGIB-SR eligibility if you were discharged from Selected Reserve service due to a disability that was not caused by misconduct. Your eligibility period may be extended if you are ordered to active duty.

Your unit will give you a Notice of Basic Eligibility (NOBE – DD-2384 or 2384-1) when you become eligible. Your eligibility generally ends when you leave the Selected Reserves. If you stay in the Selected Reserves, benefits generally end 10 years from the date you become eligible for the program. You may have longer if you couldn’t train because of a service-related disability.

One exception to this rule exists if you are mobilized (or recalled to active duty from your reserve status), in this case your eligibility may be extended for the amount of time you are mobilized plus four months. For example, if you are mobilized for 12 months your eligibility period is extended for 16 months (12 months active duty plus 4 months.) So even if you leave the reserves after mobilization, you may have additional eligibility to Chapter 1606 benefits.

Your application package should include the following:

- Form 22-1990 Application for Educational Assistance
- DOD form 2384 – Notice of Basic Eligibility (NOBE). This form is issued through the Guard/Reserve Unit
- Copy of any “kicker” contract, also issued by the Guard/Reserve Unit
- FGCU Request for Veteran Benefits (each semester) - an FGCU form requesting certification of enrollment.
- VA Form 22-1999, Enrollment Certification, if you started training

Note: If you are an officer in the Selected Reserve, OR if you entered active duty from the Selected Reserve after 11/29/89, please call 1-888-442-4551 for more details.

The monthly benefit paid to you is based on the type of training you’re in. If you’re attending school, your payment is based on your training time.

Beginning August 1, 2011, break (or interval pay) will no longer be payable under Post-9/11 GI Bill except during periods your school is closed as a result of an Executive Order of the President or an emergency (such as a natural disaster or strike). For example, if your Fall term ends on December 15th and your Spring term begins January 10th, your January housing allowance will cover 15 days in December and your February housing allowance will cover 21 days in January.

Chapter 1607 – Reserve Educational Assistance Program (REAP)

REAP was established as a part of the Ronald W. Reagan National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2005. It is a Department of Defense education benefit program designed to provide educational assistance to members of the Reserve components called or ordered to active duty in response to a war or national emergency (contingency operation) as declared by the President or Congress. This program makes certain reservists who were activated for at least 90 days after September 11, 2001 either eligible for education benefits or eligible for increased benefits.

Important: Eligibility will be determined by the Department of Defense (DoD) or Department of Homeland Security (DHS) as appropriate. The Department of Veteran Affairs (VA) does not make decisions about your basic eligibility, and the VA cannot pay benefits without eligibility information from DoD or DHS.

Eligibility:
- Served on active duty on or after September 11, 2001, in support of a contingency operation for 90 consecutive days or more
- OR performed full-time National Guard duty under section 502 (f) of title 32 for 90 consecutive days or more when authorized by the President or Secretary of Defense for the purpose of responding to a national emergency declared by the President and supported by federal funds
- A member called or ordered to active service while serving in the Selected Reserve remains entitled to benefits under REAP only by continuing to serve in the Selected Reserve. A member called or ordered to active service from the Individual Ready Reserve (IRR) remains entitled to benefits under REAP by continuing to serve in the Ready Reserve (either Selected Reserve or IRR).

Your application package should include the following:
- Form 22-1990 Application for Educational Assistance
- DOD form 2384 – Notice of Basic Eligibility (NOBE). This form is issued through the Guard/Reserve Unit if not already using Chapter 1606 benefits.
- Copy of orders to active duty
- DD214 – Member 4 copy
- Copy of any “kicker” contract, also issued by the Guard/Reserve Unit
- FGCU Request for Veteran Benefits (each semester) - an FGCU form requesting certification of enrollment.

You have 36 months of full time entitlement to use. Your benefits begin after the 90-day minimum service period is completed. There is no time limit for using benefits provided you remain within your component. Your eligibility to REAP will end once you leave your component or are discharged (except for disability).

All required VA application forms are available from the Office of the Registrar and must be completed in full. If a question is not applicable, please state so. Once the forms are completed, please return them for further processing. Do not send any of the forms listed directly to the VA unless advised to do so by FGCU’s VA Certifying Official or the DVA.

If you have received Veterans’ Educational benefits in the past at another institution, request a Form 22-1995 Request for Change of Program or Place of Training. If you receive benefits under Chapter 35, request Form 22-5495 with the same title.

$600 Buy-Up Program:
Some reservists may contribute up to an additional $600 to the GI Bill to receive increased monthly benefits.

Beginning August 1, 2011, break (or interval pay) will no longer be payable under Post-9/11 GI Bill except during periods your school is closed as a result of an executive order of the President or an emergency (such as a natural disaster or strike). For example, if your fall term ends on December 15th and your spring term begins January 10th, your January housing allowance will cover 15 days in December and your February housing allowance will cover 21 days in January.

Initial Check for First Time Applicants

Generally, the FGCU Certifying Official cannot certify a new student at FGCU until they have registered for classes. The DVA requires a minimum six to eight weeks to process an award and begin payment.

The monthly amount of your VA educational award may be prorated, if necessary. For example, if the first term of your enrollment begins on the 15th of the month, the VA will divide your monthly rate by 30 (the number of days in a standard month). This will provide your daily rate. Your daily rate is then multiplied by the number of days you are attending class that month. This is the amount of your check for the first month of attendance. Payment is made at the end of each month after the semester has started. For example, you will be paid in February for attendance during January, in March for attendance in February, in April for attendance in March and so on.

Because there can be a delay of as much as four months in receiving payment, tuition deferments, also known as a Promissory Note, can be obtained from the FGCU Certifying Official in the Office of the Registrar located on the 2nd floor of McTarnaghan Hall or online at http://www.fgcu.edu/Registrar/forms.html. This must be done no later than the last day of add/drop period to avoid cancellation of enrollment. This is a privilege extended by the university. If you do not pay tuition by the payment deadline, your enrollment for the term will be cancelled and late fees will be applied. Tuition deferments (Promissory Notes) must be applied for every semester regardless of enrollment certification.

Certifying Enrollment

Certification is the process by which the college reports to the Muskogee VA Education Office a student’s dates of attendance, degree program, and the number of semester hours taken. The VA will not pay any student without receiving this information. It is the student/veteran’s responsibility to notify the certifying official of enrollment each semester if you wish to utilize VA Education Benefits. Hours of enrollment ARE NOT REPORTED AUTOMATICALLY on your behalf. Please feel free to stop by the Office of the Registrar in McTarnaghan Hall, 2nd floor and notify your Certifying Official or by email.

Certification Cycle

Certification at Florida Gulf Coast University is designed for fall/spring semesters with termination at the end of each spring term. It is never assumed you wish to have your summer enrollment certified as some students like to utilize their benefits for graduate work when tuition is more expensive. Changes must be reported.

Please confirm your enrollment status each term by emailing us at orr@fgcu.edu.

A full-time course load will be different for students enrolled in the summer term due to the various sessions. For this reason, we ask that you check with the FGCU Certifying Official(s) for clarification on the credit hour requirements for full time.

Changes

All changes made after your initial application or certification should be brought to the attention of the Certifying Official so the change can be reported.

The most common changes include:

- Changes in credit hours
- Withdrawal from school
- Change in major
- Change in address
- Change in status of dependents
- Change in place of training

Change in credit hours:
This occurs when you drop a class(es) or one of your classes has been cancelled due to lack of enrollment in the specific class. You should notify the Certifying Official immediately.

Withdrawal from school:
Should it be necessary for you to withdraw from all classes, you should contact the Certifying Official immediately. There are many concerns of which you should be aware before withdrawing completely. If you are called to active duty, there are options for you. For more information, contact the Certifying Official or you can refer to the University Catalog Military Call to Active Duty Policy: http://www.fgcu.edu/Catalog/regdetail.asp?FMID=Registration+and+Records&page=23

Change in Major:
Should you decide to change your major (program), you should be aware there are school and VA forms to complete. After you have changed your major with your college advisor, your Certifying Official will ask you to fill out a VA Form 22-1995 (Ch. 30, 31, 32, 33, TEB, 1606, or 1607) or a VA Form 22-5495 (Ch. 35 only). Hardcopies of these forms are available through the Office of the Registrar.

Change in Address:
If you should move during your enrollment at FGCU, you will need to change your address with the university official and with the VA Regional Office through your FGCU VA Certifying Official.

Changes in status of dependents:
This applies to those students utilizing Vietnam Era GI Bill benefits and Vocational Rehabilitation. These groups of veterans receive an additional allowance for each dependent.

Changes can occur when:

- A dependent child reaches the age of 18. If the dependent child is still in high school or is enrolled in college, the veteran may continue to receive an allowance for that child. This requires the veteran to complete and submit a 21-674 Form available through the Certifying Official or http://www.vba.va.gov/pubs/forms/VBA-21-674-ARE.pdf
- A child is born. If this happens, you will need to submit a certified true copy of the child's birth certificate immediately.
- A divorce occurs. The veteran will need to submit a certified true copy of the divorce degree.
- A dependent dies. The veteran will need to submit a certified true copy of the death certificate.
- A veteran marries. You will need to submit as certified true copy of the marriage license.
Change in place of training:
Should you change your place of training, it is necessary to complete a VA Form 22-1995 (Ch. 30, 31, 32, 34, 1606, or 1607) or a VA Form 22-5495 (Ch. 35 only). Hardcopies of these forms are available through the Office of the Registrar.

Form 22-1995 Request for Change of Program or Place of Training:

Form 22-5495 Dependents’ Request for Change or Program of Place of Training:

Failure to report changes constitutes fraud and is the primary cause for delays in the delivery of your educational checks and occurrences of overpayment. Changes may be reported to the Certifying Official in person, by telephone, or via email. Periodic audits are conducted and changes in schedule are caught, but it is ultimately the student’s responsibility to report these changes before incurring an overpayment or possibly an underpayment.

Delimiting Date

Most educational benefits programs allow the veteran 10 years to use the benefits. The delimiting date, or the date late benefits may be used, is determined by adding 10 years to the day following the date of release or discharge.

Chapter 35 generally requires sons and daughters to be between the ages of 18 and 26 to use the entitlement, but this can be adjusted in certain instances.

Spouses are allowed 10 years from the date the veteran was found permanently disabled or from the date of the death of the spouse from whom eligibility is derived.

In all cases, the DVA determines the delimiting date. The veteran will be informed of this date in an award letter.

Transient Studies

A transient student is one whose primary school is an institution other than FGCU but who wishes to attend classes at FGCU with the intention of transferring the credit back to the primary school. Transient students seeking to be certified for VA benefits while attending FCU must present a letter from the primary school stating that the courses to be taken at FGCU are applicable and transferable to their intended degree program. The courses must be explicitly listed in the letter.

Advising

Florida Gulf Coast University faculty and staff want to assist you in gaining sufficient information to determine what classes would be taken for your individual degree program. In addition to the University Catalog and class schedules, your academic advisor is available to you. Class selection is your responsibility. Make use of the advising staff. Read your catalog and view course offerings by term through Gulfline. The final responsibility for course or degree selection is yours. We are here to help.

University Catalog:

Mitigating Circumstances

The law requires that VA must collect all benefits paid to a veteran or dependent for a course or courses for which the grade assigned was not sued in computing the requirements for graduation. This includes withdrawing from a course unless there are mitigating circumstances. The list is not all-inclusive:

- Serious accident or illness of the eligible veteran or dependent
- Serious illness or death in the eligible veteran’s or dependent’s family
- Immediate family or financial obligations, which require a change in terms, hours, or place of employment, which prevent pursuit of a course
- Cancellation of a course by the college
- Active duty military service, including active duty for training
- An unavoidable geographical transfer resulting from the student’s employment
- An unavoidable change in the student’s work house or condition of employment

The VA expects documentation to substantiate the student’s claim for mitigating circumstances. The student must submit a description and the supporting evidence to the VA within one year of being notified of an overpayment.

Examples of unacceptable mitigating circumstances include withdrawal to avoid a failing grade, dislike of the instructor, or too many courses attempted. If the VA does not accept the claim, the student may appeal the decision in writing.

The Six-Credit Exclusion:
The VA waives the mitigating circumstances provision the first time a student using educational benefits withdraws from courses. This applies to a maximum of six weeks semester hours. In this case, a student is not required to show proof of mitigating circumstances. The six-hour exclusion only applies to the first instance of withdrawal. It does not apply across the board for the entire semester of a student’s first withdrawal. In order for the full six hours to be accepted, the last date of attendance must be the same for all six hours. For Chapter 31, please seek the assistance of your VA counselor.

Payments

Monthly Benefit Checks

The monthly checks go directly to the veteran or dependent address as indicated on the application submitted to DVA. It is extremely important to keep the VA and FGCU informed of any address changes. The first check, after initially applying for benefits, will normally take 6-8 weeks to be received. Checks are paid retroactively back to the first day of classes.

Payment of Tuition and Fees

Except for Chapter 31, students must pay their tuition and fees from their own resources and be prepared to meet expenses until their first check arrives. All benefits are retroactive back to the first day of classes. Chapter 31 (Voc Rehab) students are required to submit or make sure the VA Form 28-1905 has been submitted to FGCU prior to the beginning of classes. Without this form, tuition, fees, books, and supplies will not be paid.
Break/Interval Pay

Break pay money is money to VA students between consecutive semesters during which the student is receiving benefits on at least a half-time basis. A common example occurs between the fall and spring semesters.

Break pay is not authorized for:
- Periods spanning more than one full calendar month
- Periods in excess of 30 days when transferring from one school to another and remaining in the same program
- Students transferring from one school to another and remaining in the same program
- Students who were less than half-time on the last day of the preceding term
- Students requesting in writing no to be paid break pay
- Students whose entitlement will be exhausted during the break and it is therefore advantageous to the student to conserve entitlements

Overpayments

There may be a time when a student receives an overpayment from the VA while attending FGCU. An overpayment can occur for any of the following reasons:
- Withdrawal from school
- Withdrawal from one or more classes which changes the training time
- Changes in dependency status
- Taking course not in the selected degree program

This list is not all-inclusive. Other reasons may also trigger an overpayment. The VA may allow the money to be kept, depending on mitigating circumstances. If you should experience any kind of change that may affect either your eligibility status or your training rate, you should contact the Certifying Official.

VA Actions Once an Overpayment is Created

- Add interest charges or collection fees to your debt
- Withhold future benefits and apply them to your debt
- Collect the debt from your federal income tax refund
- Turn your debt over to a private collection agency
- Withhold approval of your VA home loan guarantee
- File suit in federal court to collect your debt

WAVE

The Web Automated Verification of Enrollment (WAVE) application on the GI Bill website will allow you to verify your enrollment, change your address, or establish a direct deposit. Go to https://www.gibill.va.gov/wave or call the DVA toll free Interactive Voice Response (IVR) telephone line at 1-877-823-2378.

The earliest you can verify your enrollment is the last calendar day of each month. Some things you can do to speed up your payments are to verify your enrollment promptly at the end of each month and sign up for direct deposit, if you haven’t already done so.
The WAVE and IVR systems are not operating in real time. Instead, they are batch systems and store data to be processed at a later time. Stored data is processed every workday to update the records and issue payments. After the records are updated, it will take another workday for the WAVE and IVR systems to be updated to reflect the successful verification.

WAVE contains information on veterans and servicepersons who are actively receiving benefits under the Montgomery GI Bill only.

The most common reasons for not having a WAVE record:
- Your application for benefits has not been processed by the VA Regional Office.
- You are receiving Tuition Assistance Top-Up.
- You do not need a monthly verification of enrollment for any reason.
- You are receiving benefits under REAP.

WAVE records will generally be removed about six months after your award. The most common reason for not having a record in WAVE is that the VA Regional Office has not received your application for processing. You will normally have a WAVE record the day after the VA gets your application processed.

The WAVE site will be unavailable daily from 5:00 to 5:30 AM Eastern Time due to database updates. The WAVE site may also not be available very late Sunday evening through early Monday morning periodically due to maintenance.

Rights and Responsibilities of Student

It is the student’s responsibility to apply for VA Educational Benefits and submit copies of appropriate forms to the Office of the Registrar.

It is the student’s responsibility to inform the Office of the Registrar of his or her enrollment intent prior to the beginning of each semester.

It is the student’s responsibility to report changes in enrollment, major/program, dependency status, place of training, school, or mailing address to the Office of the Registrar to avoid overpayments and to ensure that the VA has the most up-to-date information.

It is the student’s responsibility to report dropped classes or withdrawal from school.

To be considered for full-time VA benefits, degree-seeking undergraduates must enroll for twelve or more semester hours, and degree-seeking graduate students must enroll for nine or more semester hours each academic semester.

VA regulations require that students take only courses that are applicable towards their degree program or other approved program and they must make satisfactory progress towards their degree.

Students receiving educational veterans’ benefits are allowed no more than two probationary/warning terms. If a veteran reaches this point, their benefits will be terminated for failure to achieve satisfactory progress.

VA benefits will be terminated for students who are dismissed for academic or disciplinary reasons and can only be reinstated after academic counseling.

It is the student’s responsibility to remain in good standing with the VA and to respond to notification of changes in regulation.
The student has the right to appeal any decision by the VA within one year of the date he or she receives notice of the decision.

The United States Federal Government protects student records privacy and provides for review and disclosure rights.

Generally, schools must have written permission from the student in order to release any information from a student’s educational record. However, FGCU maintains the right to disclose these records without consent to:

- School officials with legitimate educational interest.
- Other schools to which a student is transferring.
- Specified officials for audit or evaluation purposes.
- Appropriate parties in connection with financial aid to a student.
- Organizations conducting certain studies for or on behalf of the school.
- Accrediting organizations.
- To comply with a judicial order or lawfully issued subpoena.
- Appropriate officials in cases of health and safety emergencies.
- State and local authorities, within a juvenile justice system, pursuant to specific State law.

Frequently Asked Questions

Can you change programs?
If you change your educational, professional, or vocational objective and this change requires a change in the courses you are taking, VA considers this a change of program. The law permits one change of program without prior VA approval if your attendance, conduct, and progress in the last program were satisfactory. VA may approve additional changes if the proposed programs are suitable to your abilities, aptitudes, and interests. VA will not charge a change of program when you enroll in a new program provided you successfully completed your immediately preceding program.

Must you maintain satisfactory attendance, conduct, and progress?
Once you start receiving benefits, you must maintain satisfactory attendance, conduct, and progress. If you do not meet the standards set by your school, the certifying official must notify VA. VA will stop your benefits if the school reports unsatisfactory attendance, conduct, or progress. VA may resume benefits if:

- You reenter the same program at the same school, and your school approves your reentry and certifies it to VA.
- If you do not reenter the same program at the same school, VA may resume benefits if:
  - The cause of your unsatisfactory attendance, conduct, or progress has been removed
  - And the program which you intend to pursue is suitable to your abilities, aptitudes, and interests.

What should you do if you do not receive a check?
If you attend school, you must verify your enrollment for each month by using the WAVE system. Remember that you cannot be paid for a month until the month is over and you verify that you were still in attendance for that month.

WAVE and the telephone Interactive Voice Response Systems require at least three workdays to process and update the system. Both systems process data every workday, but it sometimes takes some additional time before they are updated to reflect the new information.

May you attend part-time?
If you are unable to attend full-time, consider going part-time. Benefit rates for part-time training are less than the full-time rates. Likewise, the entitlement charge for part-time training is less than the charge for full-time training. For example, if you receive full-time benefits for twelve months, the charge is twelve months. If you receive half-time benefits for twelve months, the charge is six months.
Can you receive payments by Direct Deposit?
You can get your Chapter 30 payments sent directly to your savings or checking account. VA does this through Direct Deposit/Electronic Fund Transfer. For information about how to get your payments sent through direct deposit, contact your local VA office or your bank.

How can you prevent overpayments?
An overpayment is an incorrect benefit payment that is more than the amount to which you are entitled. If you promptly notify VA of changes affecting your benefits, you can prevent or reduce overpayments. In addition, you should use reasonable judgment when you accept and cash a check. Carefully read all letters from VA about the monthly rates and effective dates of your benefits. If you think the amount of a VA check is wrong, contact VA before cashing the check. Return any checks for the wrong amount to the VA. If you cash a check for the wrong amount, you will be liable for repayment of any resulting overpayment.

When you check WAVE, the current enrollment period is not shown. What does this mean?
WAVE is a reflection of the VA Regional Office's main computer record. WAVE is updated every workday so it is fairly current. If your WAVE record does not reflect your current enrollment status, it is because the DVA has not processed your current enrollment paperwork. This could be because the VA Regional Offices have not received your paperwork from your school or because they have not had enough time to process it. The VA Regional Offices are extremely busy at the start of each semester and it takes them several weeks to process everyone's enrollments and changes.

Student Code of Conduct
The Student Code of Conduct exists to define the behavioral rights and responsibilities of Florida Gulf Coast University students (1) to foster and enhance the academic mission of the University, (2) to protect the rights of all university students, faculty, and staff, (3) to protect University property, (4) to protect the University community from disruption and harm and (5) to encourage appropriate standards of individual and group behavior.

Authority
The University President has the final responsibility and authority for the discipline of University students. The Vice President for Student Affairs, as the President’s designee, has the authority to enforce University regulations and policies, as well as state and federal law as they relate to Student Code of Conduct matters, and may take direct control of any case. Student organizations charged with violating the Student Code of Conduct fall under the authority of the University conduct system. The Student Conduct Committee has authority to make a finding of “responsible” and to recommend sanctioning to the President or designee. Failure to comply with duly established laws or University regulations may subject violator(s) to appropriate action by University authorities and/or appropriate civil and criminal authorities. Serious violations of established laws or University regulations may be recorded in the individual(s) and/or organization(s) disciplinary record in the Dean of Students’ Office.

This provision also encompasses conduct of a sexual nature that creates an intimidating, hostile or offensive environment for another person such as unwanted, unwelcome, inappropriate or irrelevant sexual activities, comments or gestures.

• Theft/Property Damage: The attempted or actual theft of and/or damage to public or private property, as well as, possession or destruction of such property with disregard of possible harm to such property.

Express or implied consent of the victim will not be a defense.

• Unauthorized Use of Keys and/or Entry: Unauthorized possession, duplication or use of keys to any University premises, or unauthorized entry, or attempted entry to, or use of University premises.

• Controlled Substances and Drug Paraphernalia: Use, possession, sale, and/or distribution of any narcotic, controlled substances or drug paraphernalia, as defined in Chapter 893, Florida Statutes, or attempt to obtain such items, except as expressly permitted by law.

• Alcohol: Public intoxication and/or the use, possession, sale and/or distribution of alcoholic beverages except as expressly permitted by law, University regulations and the University Alcohol Policy.

• Weapons/Firearms/Chemicals: Illegal or unauthorized possession or use of firearms, fireworks, explosives, other weapons or dangerous chemicals on University premises or use of any such item, even if legally possessed, in a manner that harms, threatens or causes fear to others. Weapons include, but are not limited to ammunition, metallic knuckles, slingshots, bows and arrows, switch-blades, knives, Air soft guns, pellet guns, BB guns, and paintball guns.

• Campus Disturbances and Demonstrations, Parades, or Picketing: Unlawful interference with academic freedom and freedom of speech of any member of the University community, as well as intentional interference with the educational function of the University.

- Responsibility for Guests: Students will be held accountable for any damage or violation of University rules and regulations by their guests on campus or in University Housing.

Interim Suspension
The President or designee has the authority to determine if a violation warrants an interim suspension of a student or a student organization’s privileges at any time prior to the conclusion of the University’s disciplinary process, including during the appeal process. The criteria used in making this determination are:

- Whether the student poses an ongoing threat of harm, disruption of, or interference with, the normal operations of the University; and
- Whether interim suspension is necessary to protect the health (physical and mental), safety or general welfare of the University community or to preserve University property.

An interim suspension means a student cannot be on University property, cannot attend classes (including online classes), and cannot use University facilities.
