

Profile

- Opened 1997 to 2,584 students
- Currently 14,469 students
- Five colleges
- 52 undergraduate, 24 graduate, and 2 doctoral degree programs
- 1,256 full-time faculty and staff
- 94% students from Florida

Instructional Productivity

4-Year Percent Change in Baccalaureate Degrees Awarded Annually in S.T.E.M. (2009-10 to 2013-14)

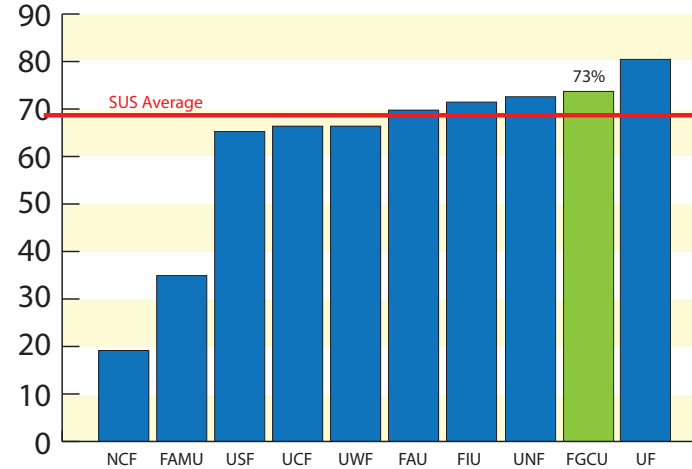

Florida Gulf Coast University has demonstrated significant growth in degrees awarded in Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics (STEM) fields.

Source: Board of Governors

Instructional Efficiency

2013 - 2014 Bachelor's Degrees Awarded without Excess Hours

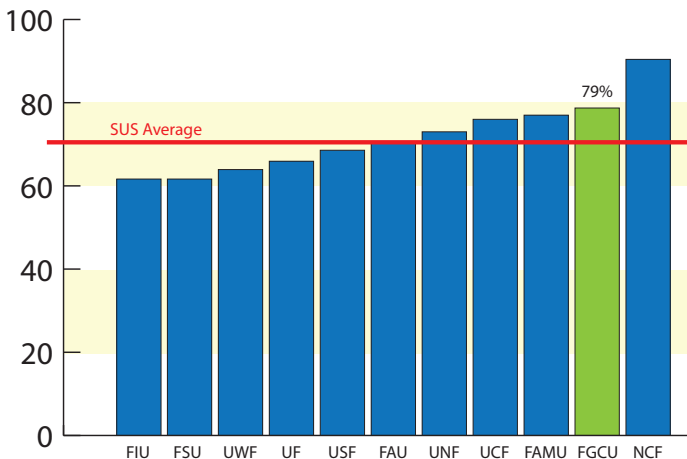

Florida Gulf Coast University is among the most efficient universities in the State University System in graduating students without excess hours.

Source: Board of Governors 2013-14 System Accountability Report, page 8. (Note: FSU data not available at time of publication)

Quality

2013-14 Percent of Undergraduate Credit Hours Taught by Full-Time Faculty

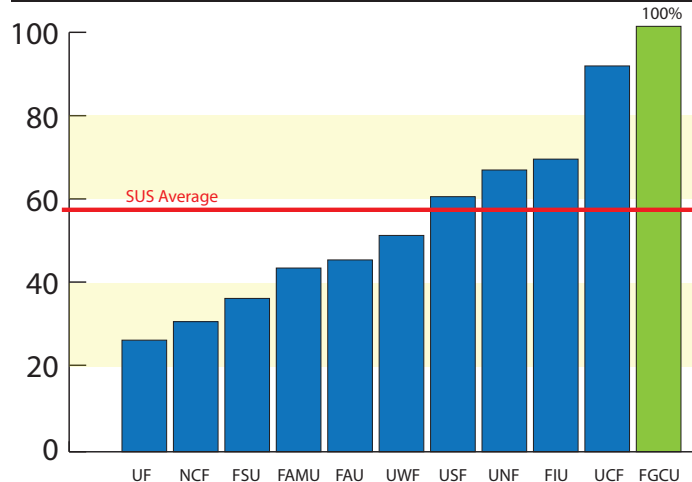

Florida Gulf Coast University provides a high quality undergraduate experience for its students with full-time faculty providing 79% of classroom instruction.

Source: Board of Governors

Opportunity

2009-10 through 2013-14 Percent Increase in Degrees Awarded Annually to Students with Pell Grants

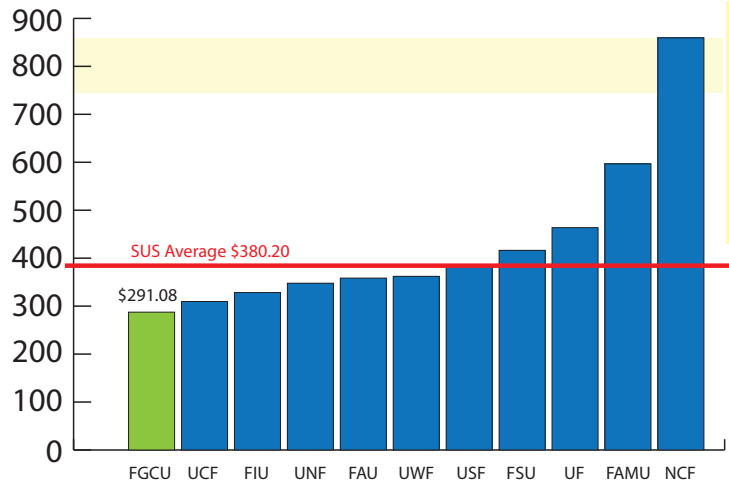

Florida Gulf Coast University's rate of growth in the number of Pell students who earn a bachelor's degree is the highest within the State University System.

Source: Board of Governors

(Data shown is most current available.)

Instructional Efficiency

2013-2014 Total Expenditures Per Student Credit Hour

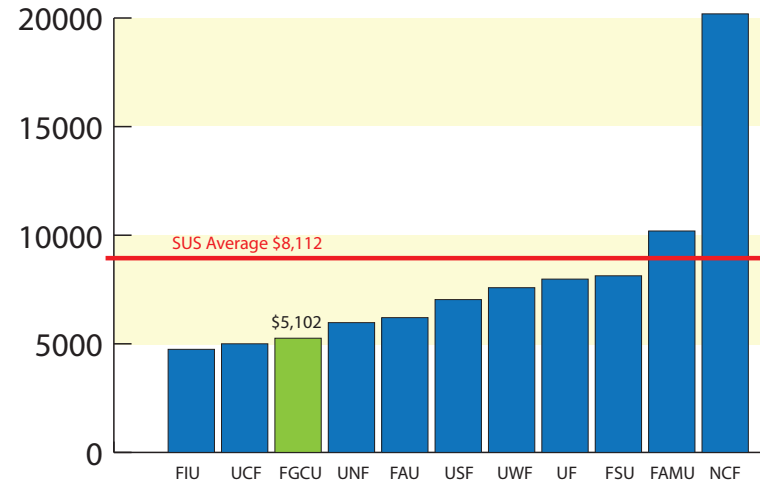

Florida Gulf Coast University delivers high quality learning outcomes at a cost far below the State University System average.

Source: Board of Governors

State Support

State Appropriated Funding Per Actual FTE 2013-14

Florida Gulf Coast University's state funding per capita is among the lowest in the State University System.

Source: Board of Governors

Workforce Development

Employment and/or Continuing Education in Florida Following Graduation Bachelor Degrees

Year	FGCU's SUS Rank
2011-2012	1
2010-2011	1
2009-2010	1
2008-2009	1
2007-2008	1
2006-2007	1

Florida Gulf Coast University students who earn their degrees are employed in Florida and stay in Florida for the long term. 81% of Florida Gulf Coast University graduates in 2000-2001 were still employed in Florida in 2009 (most recent data available from Florida Education Training and Placement Information Program)

Employment in Florida Following Graduation Master Degrees

Year	FGCU's SUS Rank
2011-2012	1
2010-2011	1
2009-2010	1
2008-2009	2
2007-2008	1
2006-2007	1