FGCU Scholars
Advancing Writing, Critical Thinking, and Information Literacy

Florida Gulf Coast University
Quality Enhancement Plan
Survey Results, October 2013
QEP Survey Results

QEP Survey sent out to all program leaders
Data collected October 11-21, 2013
33 of 51 undergraduate programs responded (65%)
Note: Some linked programs responded in one survey (e.g., BA, BS Mathematics)
Programs Responding to Survey

- Arts & Sciences: 11 (34%)
- Education: 4 (13%)
- Health Professions and Social Work: 6 (19%)
- Lutgert College of Business: 7 (22%)
- Whitaker College of Engineering: 4 (12%)
Part II: QEP Survey Results

Capstone Course that teaches discipline specific writing, critical thinking, and information literacy.

3, 9% No
29, 91% Yes
Part II: QEP Survey Results

Does your program have a gateway course (or courses), which are generally at the junior level?

- Yes: 23 (72%)
- No: 9 (28%)

Legend:
- Red: Yes
- Orange: No
Part II: QEP Survey Results

Does your program include a research methods course(s) within the major that focuses on teaching discipline specific writing, critical thinking and/or information literacy (in addition to the gateway or senior seminar/senior capstone course(s) previously

- Yes: 19, 100%
- No: 0, 0%
Part II: QEP Survey Results

Program Engages at least one type of Undergraduate Scholarship

- Yes: 28, 87%
- No: 4, 13%