The Association of Private Enterprise Education® Awards Petra Besenhard 3rd Place in the Undergraduate Research Competition

The Association of Private Enterprise Education® recognized Petra Besenhard of Florida Gulf Coast University with 3rd place in the Undergraduate Research Competition. Prizes for the contest were awarded on April 5, 2016 at The Association's International Conference held in Las Vegas, Nevada, featuring keynote speaker Dr. John B. Taylor of the Hoover Institution at Stanford University.

The Undergraduate Research Competition, co-sponsored by the Liberty Fund, Inc., solicited undergraduate research from The Association's general themes of political economy, private enterprise education, and free markets, but welcomed research from any topic. Participants displayed and presented their research during a special reception at the 2016 Conference. Besenhard was awarded 3rd place for her research presentation titled "The Controversy of Indian Labor Law."
