Method of Delivery

- Welcome to CGS 1100.
- Class attendance and use of Canvas and SAM for all assignments is required.
- This CGS 1100 course is delivered in asynchronous (anytime/anywhere) mode using the Canvas system at URL http://canvas.fgcu.edu/ and the Cengage Learning Inc. SAM website which is integrated with Canvas. Therefore, please review the Canvas and SAM student tutorials on Canvas.
- To guide the learning process, the instructor will be sending e-mails* from Canvas containing detailed tasks (assignments). These tasks usually include textbook readings; SAM assignments; simulations; projects; videos; and interactive discussion forums, among other learning strategies.
- The e-mails will contain the latest-time (deadline) to complete the tasks (assignments), although a tentative schedule will also be posted on Canvas.
- Students work will be assessed and evaluated based on the assignments, and exams.
- A mandatory confirmation of attendance assignment will need to be completed within the first week of class on Canvas. This assignment will be required for all students, not only those receiving financial aid.

Office Hours for CGS 1100

CGS 1100 covers technology, terminology & concepts, as well as the use of productivity software. These skills and knowledge are necessary for your understanding of information systems (ISM 3011), operations management (MAN 3504) and accounting, as well as many courses outside the Lutgert College of Business. After completing this course, you should have a general knowledge of information technology and be able to use Office 2016 products (specific learning outcomes for each chapter are provided in the Course Guide). Proficiency in EXCEL 2016 is emphasized, since proficiency will be needed in Economics, Operations Management (MAN 3504), and Finance.

Catalog Description

An introduction to computer hardware and software tools for knowledge workers. Software tools include spreadsheets, word processing, two- and three-dimensional presentation graphics, electronic mail, and network browsers. In addition, the course explores computer information systems in organizations and the use of computers to enhance productivity.

Teaching Philosophy

Instructor's Role - The instructor serves as facilitator in the learning process:
- Creating exciting learning opportunities for the students
- Assigning readings & challenging projects
- Assessing students' work

Student's Role - Students (you!) should be active participants in the learning process:
- Checking Canvas daily for updates
- Submitting assignments in Canvas (by due date)
- Contacting the Instructor of issues or questions as soon as they arise.

Grading Policy

Grading Policy:
A: 90% – 100%
B: 80% – 90%
C: 70% – 80%
D: 60% – 70%
F: 60% – 0%

Percentage Distribution:

0% Confirmation of attendance assignment

20% SAM Emerge/Office 2016 Training’s

15% SAM ACCESS/EXCEL/WORD Projects

20% SAM Application Exams (EXCEL/WORD)

15% Canvas Emerge Individual Writing Assignment

30% SAM Final Exam

1. All homework assignments and exams are expected to be received on the date and time specified per schedule.
2. Late assignments will not be accepted.
3. If you have a valid excuse per university guidelines for missing a deadline, it is your responsibility to notify the instructor (via email) prior to the deadline. Please see the Policy regarding missed tests or assignments section listed below for valid excuses.
5. There will be no individual extra credit assignments or projects.

Things to do the first week!

- Read the Syllabus – look at the schedule on Canvas for assignments and due dates
- Log onto Canvas, read what is posted and check your email (check this daily)
- Read all posted Assignments on Canvas (check this often – homework and exam instructions are posted there)
- Buy the eBook bundle and make sure you have the proper software (if using your own computer) – note that we are using Office version 2016 (ACCESS, EXCEL, POWERPOINT, and WORD)

SAM has a Projects Cheating System Detection. The University expects that all students will be evaluated and graded on their own work. If you give your assignment to another student to use and they submit it as their assignment both of you will receive a zero and both of you will be referred to academic dishonesty.

Validation: Students may be contacted by the instructor via email or Canvas. In some cases, the instructor may ask a student to visit his office in order to validate the student’s performance in online tests, assignments, and quizzes.

University Statements

Academic Behavior Standards and Academic Dishonesty

All students are expected to demonstrate honesty in their academic pursuits. The university policies regarding issues of honesty can be found in the FGCU Student Guidebook under the Student Code of Conduct and Policies and Procedures sections. All students are expected to study this document which outlines their responsibilities and consequences for violations of the policy. The FGCU Student Guidebook is available online at http://studentservices.fgcu.edu/judicialaffairs/new.html.

Sanctions for academic dishonesty may include receiving an “F” in this course – FGCU may impose additional penalties. Any incidents of academic dishonesty may be referred to the FGCU Office of Judicial Affairs. Please look up the definition of plagiarism – it includes copying something off the Internet & submitting it as your own work.

Some examples of what is NOT acceptable:

- Working with another student & turning in the same work (e.g. tests, papers, spreadsheet, database, etc).
- Emailing or posting your work to let someone else “just see how you did it”.
- Copying someone’s assignment or copying something from a book or the Internet.
- Giving or receiving help from someone (in person, on line or on the phone) during an online test.
- Telling someone else what is on a test.
- Collaborating on the final exam

Examples of what is acceptable:

- Discussing how to approach an assignment with another student.
- Showing someone where they might have made a mistake on an assignment.
- Asking the professor for assistance.

University Nondiscrimination Statement

Florida Gulf Coast University is committed to ensuring equity and fairness for all University employees, students, visitors, vendors, contractors and other third parties. As such, the University prohibits discrimination on the bases of race, color, national origin, ethnicity, religion, age, disability, sex (including sexual harassment/assault), gender identity/expression, marital status, sexual orientation, veteran status or genetic predisposition with regard to admissions, employment, programs or other activities operated by the University. This prohibition extends to enforcement of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972. Questions or complaints should be directed to the Office of Institutional Equity and Compliance (OIEC). The OIEC’s phone number is (239)745-4366; the OIEC email address is OIEC@fgcu.edu.

Disability Accommodations Services
Florida Gulf Coast University, in accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act and the university’s guiding principles, will provide classroom and academic accommodations to students with documented disabilities. If you need to request an accommodation in this class due to a disability, or you suspect that your academic performance is affected by a disability, please see me or contact the Office of Adaptive Services. The Office of Adaptive Services is located in the Wellness Building. The phone number is 239-590-7956 or Video Phone (VP) 239-243-9453. In addition to classroom and campus accommodations, individuals with disabilities are encouraged to create their personal emergency evacuation plan and FGCU is committed to providing information on emergency notification procedures. You can find information on the emergency exits and Areas of Rescue Assistance for each building, as well as other emergency preparedness materials on the Environmental Health and Safety and University Police Department websites. If you will need assistance in the event of an emergency due to a disability, please contact Adaptive Services for available services and information.

Student Observance of Religious Holidays
All students at Florida Gulf Coast University have a right to expect that the University will reasonably accommodate their religious observances, practices, and beliefs. Students, upon prior notification to their instructors, shall be excused from class or other scheduled academic activity to observe a religious holy day of their faith. Students shall be permitted a reasonable amount of time to make up the material or activities covered in their absence. Students shall not be penalized due to absence from class or other scheduled academic activity because of religious observances. Where practicable, major examinations, major assignments, and University ceremonies will not be scheduled on a major religious holy day. A student who is to be excused from class for a religious observance is not required to provide a second party certification of the reason for the absence.
