Hello Eagles!

I am delighted that the beginning of the fall semester is quickly approaching and we will welcome many returning, as well as new students, back to the FGCU campus.

Members of our community know that the University is engaged in an ongoing effort to improve the University’s work and learning environments to support the academic, social, and career development of all members of the University community. In this ongoing effort, modifications to the Student Code of Conduct were made recently and are in effect now for the upcoming school year.

Highlights include new definitions of terms and additional items under the Prohibited Conduct section, focused on sexual misconduct, abuse or harassment. Additionally, it is always good practice to become familiar with the section concerning Academic Dishonesty which will be helpful to you in understanding academic standards. So, before you begin the fall term, please review the Student Guidebook which includes the Student Code of Conduct located here: Student Guidebook and Student Code of Conduct.

We know that you have high expectations for your collegiate experience, whether you are in your first semester or your last semester before graduation. Do your best work and continue to inspire your family and those who look up to you.

At FGCU, Eagles take care of themselves and we take care of each other. If you are a witness or victim of any misconduct, we encourage you to report it to the Office of Student Conduct through the reporting form located here: Information and Incident Report Online Form or report it to the University Police Department by calling 590-1900.

Best wishes for a very successful year! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact the Dean of Students Office at 239-590-7900 or email DOSO@fgcu.edu

With Eagle Pride,

Michele Yovanovich, EdD.
