The Florida Gulf Coast University Hall of Fame is the highest recognition given to student leaders at Florida Gulf Coast University. The Hall of Fame is reserved for those students who have demonstrated superior leadership, integrity and achievement through leadership activities, service and scholarship while members of the Florida Gulf Coast University community. As a result of their exceptional impact on the campus community, these student leaders distinguish themselves from many other outstanding students. The Florida Gulf Coast University Hall of Fame is limited in size to no more than ten students in a given year.

Requirements:

1. Applicants must currently be enrolled as an undergraduate or graduate degree-seeking student at FGCU. Undergraduate applicants must have earned at least 90 credit hours toward an undergraduate degree. Graduate applicants must have completed at least half of their required coursework for the program.

2. Applicants must be graduating in April, August or December of this year (2015).

3. Applicants must have been a full-time student more than half the time in attendance at FGCU.

4. Applicants must have excelled in at least three of the following:

   - Leadership Qualities
   - Service
   - Participation in Student Activities/Campus Life
   - Academic Achievement
5. Applicants must be enrolled full-time during the term of application and be free of disciplinary or academic probation.

6. Applicants graduating during the term of application must be enrolled for at least the number of hours required for graduation.

All undergraduate applicants must have a minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.75.

All graduate applicants must have a minimum cumulative graduate GPA of 3.00.

Applicants agree by participating in the process to have their academic and disciplinary records examined by the Selection Committee.

7. Students will be selected for induction into the Florida Gulf Coast University Hall of Fame by a Selection Committee appointed by the Vice President for Student Affairs or designee. The decision of the Selection Committee is final.

8. All applications must include:

   a. completed attached application form.
   b. a resume which cannot exceed two pages.
   c. an unofficial transcript from FGCU.
   d. a personal statement essay which does not exceed 1000 words. Please refer to the essay question prompt in the application packet for more details.
   e. three recommendation forms using the form included with the application. The recommendations must be from individuals with the experience to speak directly about the applicant’s accomplishments at FGCU.
   f. meet grade point average and credit hours requirements listed in this application.

9. Applications that are incomplete in any way or are submitted after the deadline established for the selection process, or not qualified as per guidelines above, will not be forwarded to the Selection Committee for consideration.

Copies of the Florida Gulf Coast University Hall of Fame application and recommendation forms can be downloaded from the Vice President of Student Affairs website http://studentservices.fgcu.edu/announcements.html. Persons having any questions about this process should contact the Vice President for Student Affairs Office.

Please note: Hall of Fame members will be notified of the committee’s selection by the last week of March 2015. All correspondence with applicants will be made through the student’s Eagle email account.

The Hall of Fame members will be recognized at a ceremony on April 2, 2015 in the Cohen Center Ballroom at 3:00pm.
